Merit: Most scholarships awarded by the Department of Architecture are based at least partially on academic merit. By signing this application you authorize the Department of Architecture Scholarship Committee to review your transcripts, studio evaluations, and other materials as required. These will be reviewed solely for the purpose of awarding scholarships.

Need: Many scholarships awarded by the Department of Architecture are on the basis of financial need. If you would like to be considered for these scholarships, you must have completed the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) for 2017-2018. The financial aid office provides us with information so that we can determine your level of need. For instructions and deadlines see the Office of Student Financial Aid (<http://www.washington.edu/students/osfa/>). If you are an International Student and do not have a Social Security Number, please fill out the OFSA Special Need Assessment Form (contact your adviser) to be submitted with your application.

I am applying for need-based scholarships:    yes    no

If yes:

- All U.S. residents and international students w/ a social security # must fill out a FAFSA.
- International students with no social security # please obtain from your adviser the Special Needs Assessment Form for Non-Citizens to submit with your application.

Personal statement: Please attach a one-page (maximum), typed personal statement that describes your achievements in architecture and your educational and career goals and how you anticipate using scholarship funds to further these goals. Keep in mind that members of the committee might not know you personally and will examine this statement closely. You should also make note of any special selection criteria for a particular scholarship that pertain to you. Please note also that the John Morse Graduate Fellowship, Kiyoshi Seike Endowed Fellowship and Sharon Egretta Sutton Scholarships all require additional written materials that are to be submitted with your application.

UW Transcript: Please attach a copy of your most recent UW transcript. Unofficial copies are acceptable.

Portfolio: The L. Arnie Chinn Memorial Endowed Scholarship, Mitsu and William O. Fukui Memorial Endowed Diversity Scholarship and Miller Hull Partnership Endowed Scholarship are all based partially on excellence in design as demonstrated by a portfolio that must include: 1. Examples of studio work from MArch studios at UW, 2. Examples of design work primarily from the last 12 months, and 3. Some additional work from previous years. Please submit a portfolio of no more than five examples of original design work no larger than 8.5 x11 inches, 20 pages max, saved as a separate pdf file, 10 MB Max.

Please indicate here if you are applying for any of these portfolio based scholarships:    yes    no

I declare that the information I have reported in this application is true, accurate, and correct, to the best of my knowledge.
